Professional summary

Software engineer with fifteen years of experience building web platforms, data pipelines and developer tools for small teams and large companies. I enjoy turning vague problems into simple, reliable systems.

Experience

Principal engineer at Example Corp, leading the platform group. Designed the billing service used by every product of the company. Mentored engineers and introduced code review and testing practices.